

Contents / Índice

Preface

Laura Rival

Introduction

James Andrew Whitaker, Matthias Lewy, and Tarryl Janik

Indigenous Perspectives and Ethnohistory Concerning Sorcery in the Guianas

Hay que hacer una nueva cesta

Balbina Lambos Pemón-Kamarakoto y Matthias Lewy

Armas y brujería: robo, intercambio y kanaima entre los makushi

James Andrew Whitaker

Traducción: Claudia Cornejo Simbala

Comentarios: Bernd Brabec, Daniel G. Cooper y Matthias Lewy

Historical and Contemporary Intersections Between Sorcery and Christianity in Northeastern South America

Kanaima and the Preacher: Taurepáng Cosmology

Caio Monticelli

Ethnographies of Kanaima Beyond the Work of Neil Whitehead

Kanimaton and the Sound of Violence in the Circum-Roraima Region

Matthias Lewy

Kanaima (E'toto) and the Ecology of Violence in the Circum-Mount Roraima Landscape

Daniel G. Cooper

Revisiting Kanaima Among the Patamona: Tracing the Footsteps of Neil L. Whitehead

Tarryl Janik

Interview with Theresa Whitehead

Theresa Whitehead and Tarryl Janik

Interview with Matilda Saigo Williams

Matilda Saigo Williams and Tarryl Janik

Embodiment and Moral Dilemmas in Relation to Sorcery

Witches and Witchcraft Among the Asháninka People: Moral, Psychological and Educational Aspects

Susana Frisancho and Enrique Delgado

The Body as a Battleground: Embodiment and Sorcery in Shamanic Tourism

Evgenia Fotiou

Sorcery in the Gran Chaco: Counter-State Force or Unfinished Crystallization of Power?

Sonia Sarra and Florencia Tola

Afterword

Ernst Habmayer